Message from the Headteacher- Mr. Lacey

Dear Parents/Carers,

I hope you are well.

Parents evening will take place next term.

Jackie Thompson will be in touch regarding appointment times etc. I really hope you can attend as it is our opportunity to share with you your son/daughters progress and achievements.

Please also don't forget that we are having a training day on the 8th of November and 6th December so there will be no school that day.

I hope you have a great half-term break. School reopens on Monday 4th November.

Parents' evening

Happy half-term!

Key events

Please see upcoming events below:

- Half term: 28th October-1st November.
- Friday 8th November: Teacher training day. School closed to students.
- Friday 6th December: Teacher training day.

Enrichment clubs

Starting Friday 15th November, we have exciting opportunities for students to take part in enrichment clubs. Student will have the choice of club they can participate in. We have Lego therapy which focusses on developing student communication and co-operative play, cooking, caring for the school environment, photography and journalism, sensory and art club as well as remote control car club. We look forward to sharing students' engagement within these clubs soon.

FRIENDS AT BASKERVILLE
